

Orientation Meeting Three

Behavior Guidelines

Ambassadorial Behavior Summary

Please read the following summary carefully. Signing your Success Contract indicates that you understand and accept the rules and consequences established by People to People Ambassador Programs.

Dress rules

- No shorts at official briefings or on any airline flights
- No ripped clothing
- No clothing that allows underwear to show
- No shirts with rude expressions or logos
- No shirts that promote illegal or inappropriate behavior
- No excessively short shorts or skirts
- No bare midriffs
- No hats inside buildings

Possible consequences

- Verbal warning
- Early curfew
- Clothing confiscated
- Leader to check other clothing
- Loss of privilege
- Loss of garment for the remainder of the program
- Report 10 minutes early every day for clothing inspection
- Call or write letter to parents
- Loss of free time for a day

Punctuality rules

- Be on time! If you miss a connection it inconveniences the entire delegation and you will be responsible for any additional costs that are incurred
- Better yet, be 10 minutes early

Possible consequences

- Verbal warning
- Shadow a leader
- Call or home
- Loss of free time or privileges

Restaurant rules

- Vary your dining companions
- Starvation is not an excuse for eating before everyone at your table is served
- Every dining room should be considered a formal setting and requires your best table manners
- The speaking volume in a public dining area must reflect respect and concern for all patrons
- Playing with and wasting food are both unacceptable behaviors. Removing or playing with the sugar, salt, utensils, etc. are examples of non-Ambassadorial behaviors.

Possible consequences

- Verbal warning
- Sit with leaders at meals
- Be served last
- Letter of apology to group
- Assigned table companions
- Call home
- Other, as determined by the program

Continued on next page...

Orientation Meeting Three

Behavior Guidelines

Personal expectation rules

- Students are prohibited from engaging in sexual activities
- Ear piercings, hair coloring or cutting, tattooing, or body piercing are not allowed during the program

Possible consequences

- Delegate removes earring
- Delegate returns self to original condition
- Call home
- Other, as determined by the program office

Common sense

- Shoplifting may involve authorities and removal from the program
- Cleanliness: motor coach, hotel room, restaurant, and self
- You are not permitted to operate ANY kind of motorized vehicle
- No bungee jumping, sky diving, hang-gliding, or parasailing
- No guns-toys or otherwise. This includes pellet, water, and paint guns.
- People to People Ambassador Programs does not allow the purchase of swords, knives, or lighters

Possible consequences

- Pay for damage
- Confiscate object
- Call home
- Return home early
- Other, as determined by the program office

Curfew Rules

- Grade school and middle school: 10:00 p.m. Student Ambassadors will be in their assigned room 10:30 p.m. lights out
- High school: 11:00 p.m. Student Ambassadors will be in their assigned rooms 11:30 p.m. lights out.
- Exceptions will be made for late evening programs or early morning departures.
- Room check will take place every night
Note: Your leaders can modify curfew time as they deem necessary.

Possible consequences

- Verbal warning
- Loss of free time
- Assigned room next to leaders the following night
- Earlier lights out
- Letter of apology and explanation
- Call home
- Other, as determined by the program office

Continued on next page...

Orientation Meeting Three

Behavior Guidelines

Motor coach rules

- Treat your coach drivers with respect and keep the coach clean. It is the driver's responsibility to transport you. It is your responsibility to clean the coach of all garbage and belongings, including chewing gum
- Student Ambassadors assist the coach driver with loading/unloading luggage
- Stay seated and try not to sit with the same person every time
- Taking flash pictures on the coach is a safety hazard, day or night

Possible consequences

- Verbal warning
- Apologize to driver, leaders, delegates
- Loss of free time
- Clean the coach alone
- Shadow a leader
- Assigned seat
- Call home
- Other, as determined by the program office

Drugs and alcohol rules

- No drugs or alcohol are allowed during the program

Possible consequences

- All of the above
- In addition, depending on the severity of the incident, you may be sent home at your parents' expense and you will not receive high school credit
- You may not be invited back to participate in future programs